EYLAR TO TALK ON NEW COURTHOUSE

Matter of Joint City Hall and Court House Will Be Discussed at the Luncheon on Thursday. Tentative plans for the construction of a joint city hall and county court ouse are to be discussed by county icheon of the chamber of commerce at he Pasa del Norte. The proposition to erect a large buildng that will accommodate all city and county offices was agitated over a year ago. It was proposed at that time that the city should dispose of the city hall park or the county should sell part of its coperty and erect the new building on e part remaining. Judge Eylar will discuss the advisability of erecting a joint building, the cost and the usefulness thereof, it being he idea to concentrate all public offices s one structure so as to save time for When first agitated, the plan-save the sale of any of the city park space-met with favor among the business men of the city and they are to learn just what is proposed in order that they may know what action to take.

C., July 15.—Sen-ator Bristow's resolution, intro-duced in the senste today, asking presi-dent Wilson to name a salary that would keep secretary of state Bryan at his post, also called attention to Mr.

It stated that the salary was increased to $12,000 in 1911, but that the great commoner, who now occupies that office, has stated that the salary of $12,000 is not sufficient to enable him to live comfortably and that he is compelled to neslect his duties and go on the lecture platform to earn a live

Attention was called further to the Mexican, Japanese, British and other international questions before the state department which the resolution alleged department which the resolution alleged were not receiving full consideration. Reading of the resolution was greeted by broad smiles from the Republicanide of the chamber. Senators Kern, Lewis and other Democrats were on their feet before it was concluded and objected to its consideration. It went over to the next resolution. Senator Williams, Democrat, who had not heard the introduction of the recommendation. not heard the introduction of the resolution, demanded to know who was responsible for it.
"In my weak way, I have tried to express my views of the existing situation," returned Mr. Bristow.
